

Western New York Woodturners Club 1

Newsletter & Minutes of Meeting Held 03/04/21

MEETING HELD ONLINE WITH ZOOM

- Joe Wiesnet, President
  - Meeting was called to order with 32 members and guests
  - Going forward, we will ask the members to mail in photos of their Show-and-Tell items to one person (undecided at this time) and that one person will share their screen and ask the maker to please talk about it.
  - Starting tonight, we will record demos and have them published for all to view again or at a later time – more information to come at a later date
  - Erie County Fair update
    - Pepper Weinheimer recently met with personnel and everyone is planning as if the Fair is happening this year.
    - Glenn Stelmach is meeting with the Fair personnel next week to sign contracts, etc., and Joe is turning everything over to him!
    - Please plan on making items to donate for sales at the Fair – remember... 100% of the proceeds benefit Make-A-Wish!
  - Future demonstrations:
    - April – Mark Jensen will demonstrate a wedgie sled for segmented turning
    - May – Professional turner Art Liestman will be demonstrating
      - More information on what he will demonstrate will be forthcoming
- Gene Musial, Treasurer
  - Collecting dues – if you haven't yet paid your dues, please mail them to the new Treasurer, Gene Musial (email Gene or Kathy for the address). The dues are $20 for the entire year and are our main source of income. Make checks payable to "Western New York Woodturners 1"
- Show-and-Tell
  - The following members showed us items they've worked on:

▪ Larry Scaglione	▪ Mike Todd
▪ Eugene Schlaak	▪ Leon Nowicki
▪ Joe Wiesnet	▪ Quincy Koczka
▪ Gene Musial	▪ Paul Wilhelm
▪ Glenn Stelmach	▪ Stuart Wiesmore
▪ Rich Mialki	▪ Derrick Schmitt
▪ Jack Lucernoni	▪ Gene Renzoni
  - Great job, everyone!
- Tonight's Demo:
  - Jeff Charamie from the Fingerlakes Club did a demo on turning a yo-yo – it was really interesting!
- Final Notes:
  - The April 1st meeting will be held via Zoom at our usual 7 pm
    - I will send out an email a few days prior to the meeting with the Zoom link

Stay well and keep turning!

Kathy Nowicki,

Secretary